The Student Body of Washington High School wishes to dedicate the Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-four Washingtonian to Mr. Carl Williams

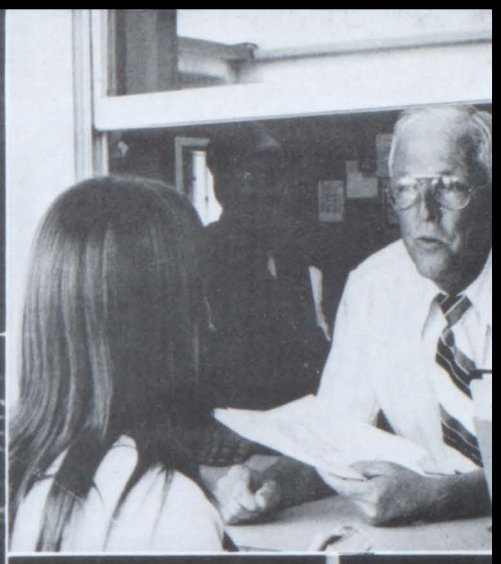
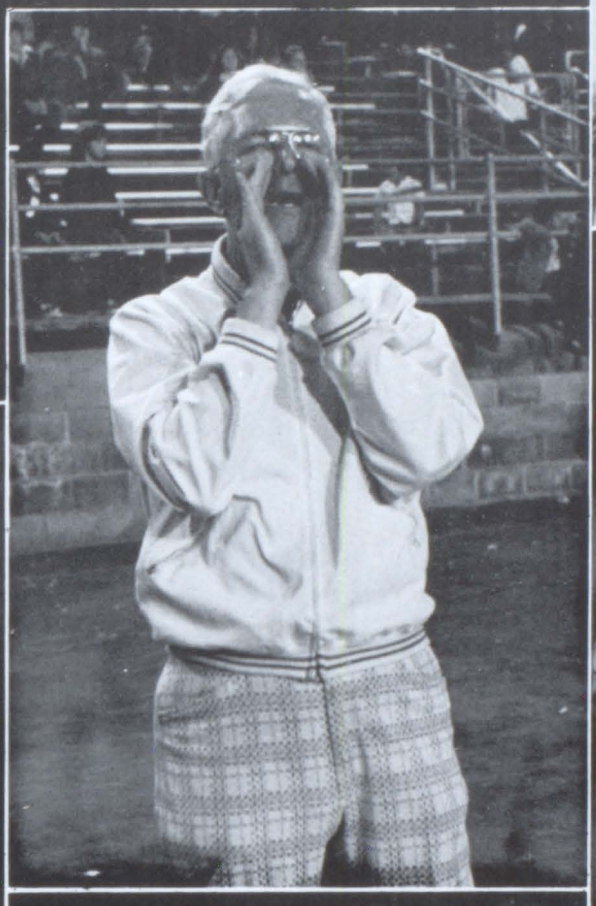
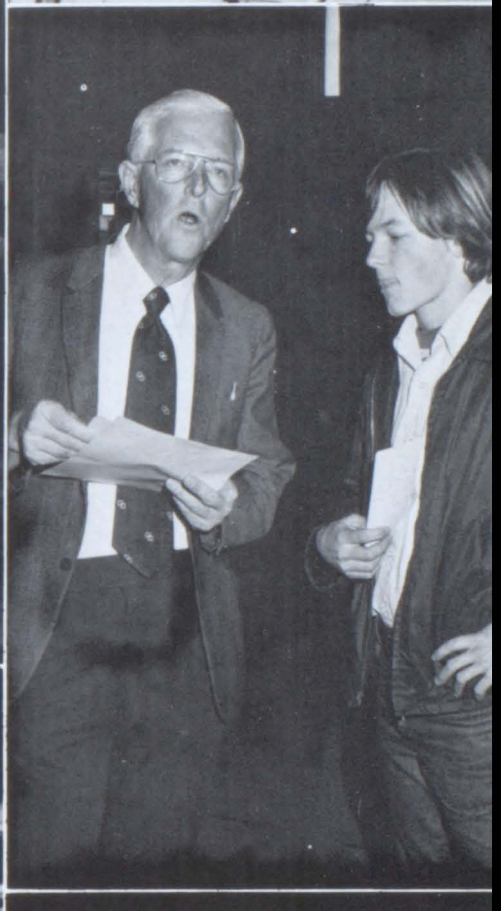
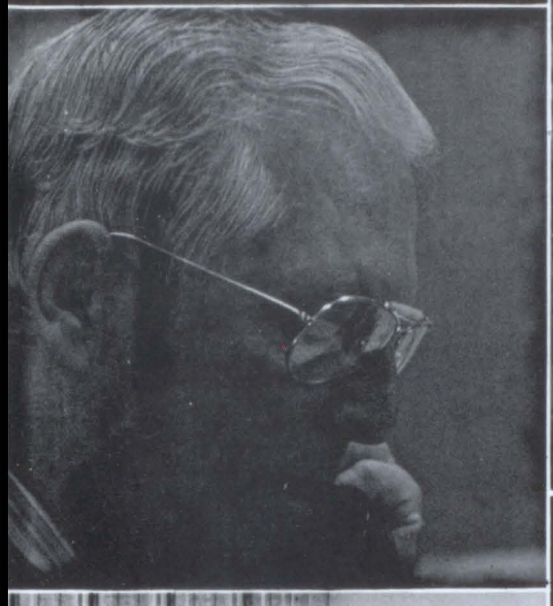
Able, concerned, interested, interesting, helpful, hardworking, dedicated, caring, understanding, misunderstood, vocal, foresighted.

His many years of service have not diminished the twinkle of his eye, his alertness of mind, or his quickness of step.









He remains an inspiration. He projects our hopes. His vision is of the future.

He is our man...in Washington.

Anniversary

Washington Union High School was started in 1892 in one room on the lower floor of the old Masonic Hall. As the number of students increased a new building was built. The site was chosen on the Niles-Centerville road. The number of students kept growing and in 1924 the present building was completed. The class of '24 was the first class to graduate from it.

We are proud to dedicate these two pages to the 50th anniversary of the main building. It is our hope that the building will be restored and last another 50 years.

On December 13,14,15, the Drama Workshop of Washington High presented "You Can't Take It With You", a comedy about an extraordinary family in the suburbs of New York, written during the Depression.

The story takes place in the home of Martin Vanderhoff, who one day decided to quit the "rat race" and enjoy life. His daughter, Penny, feels much the same way, spending her time painting and writing plays. Penny's husband, Paul, makes fire works in the cellar with Mr. Di Pinna, a character who just wandered in one day.

Essie, the Sycamore's oldest daughter, is just as insane as the rest of the family, spending her life dancing ballet and making candy. Essie's husband, Ed Carmicheal, fits into the family with his xylophone playing and his printing press. Another daughter, Alice, however, is very different from the rest of the family, being engaged to young Wall Street executive, Tony Kirby.

It is here that the plot of this play developes – Can Alice marry Tony, knowing how different their families are? The results of this arrangement are hilarious, especially when the Kirby's spend an evening with Alice's family.

Through tears, screams and hugs, it was acknowledged that after long hard work and an unawarded championship in 1971, the 1973 Gymnastic Team went undefeated. Without the constant help, time, and encouragement of our coaches, Joyce Goldsworthy and Linda Crain, this wouldn't have been possible.

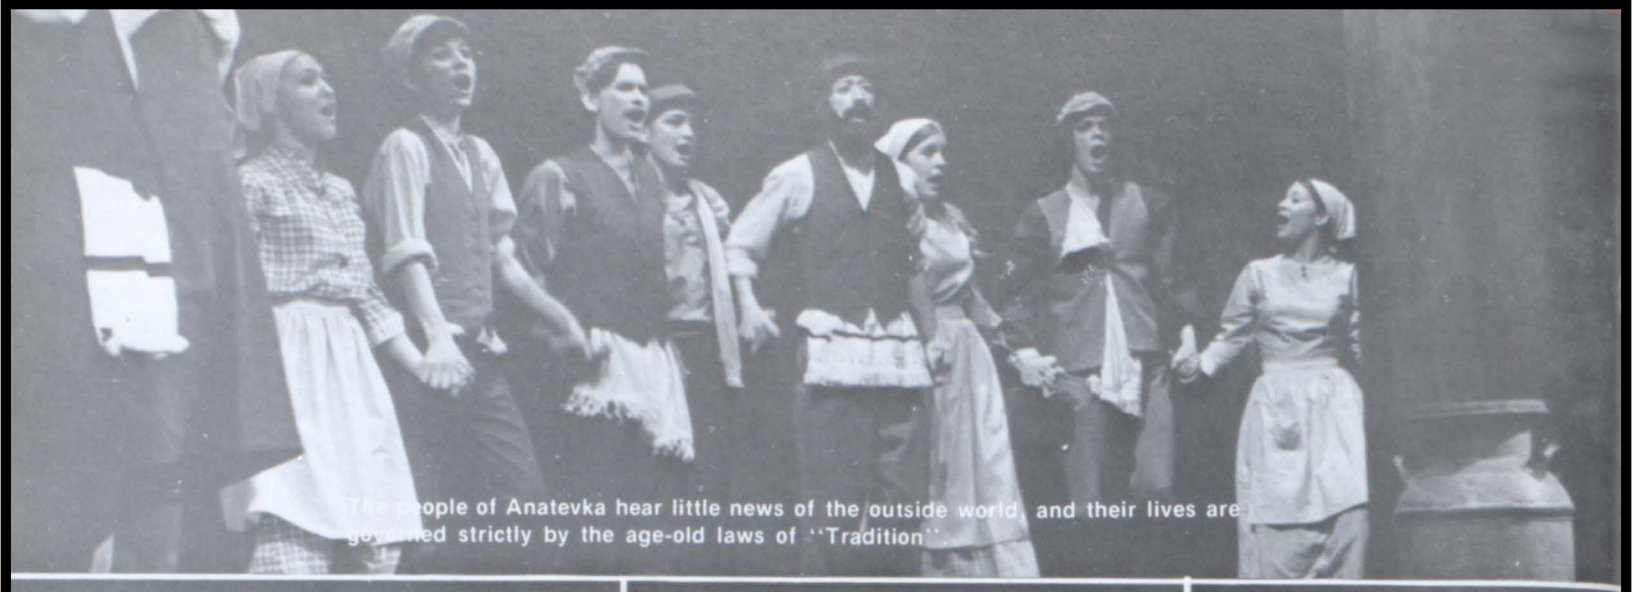
Leslee Wilson, Michelle Baker—Tzeitel

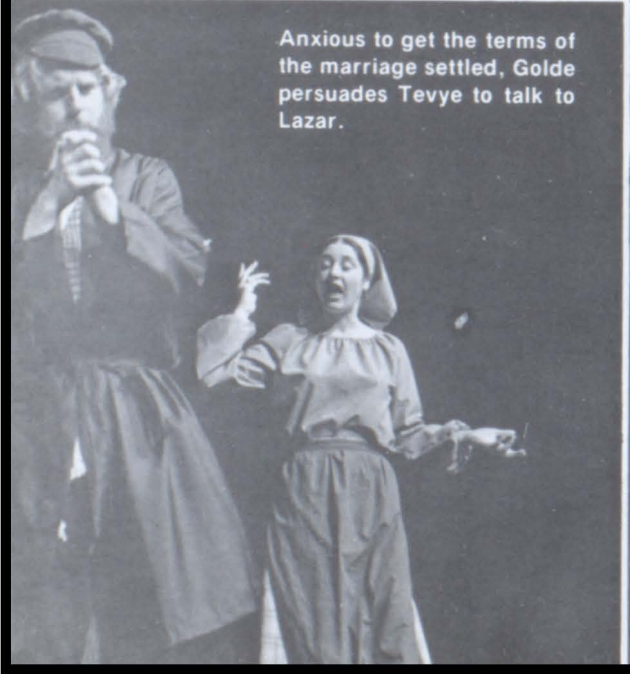


The people of Anatevka hear little news of the outside world, and their lives are governed strictly by the age-old laws of "Tradition".

Yente the matchmaker [Debra Zook] tells Golde [Deborah Brewton] that there is a perfect match in the making for her oldest daughter Tzietel—namely Lazar Wolf.

Hodel and Chava [Cathy Quick and Robynn Rodriguez] dream of the husbands that Yente will someday bring them in "Matchmaker, Matchmaker".

After a long day, Tevye [Bruce Dockter] casts an acusing eye at God and asks the traditional question . . Why couldn't I have a small fortune? in "If I were a rich man".



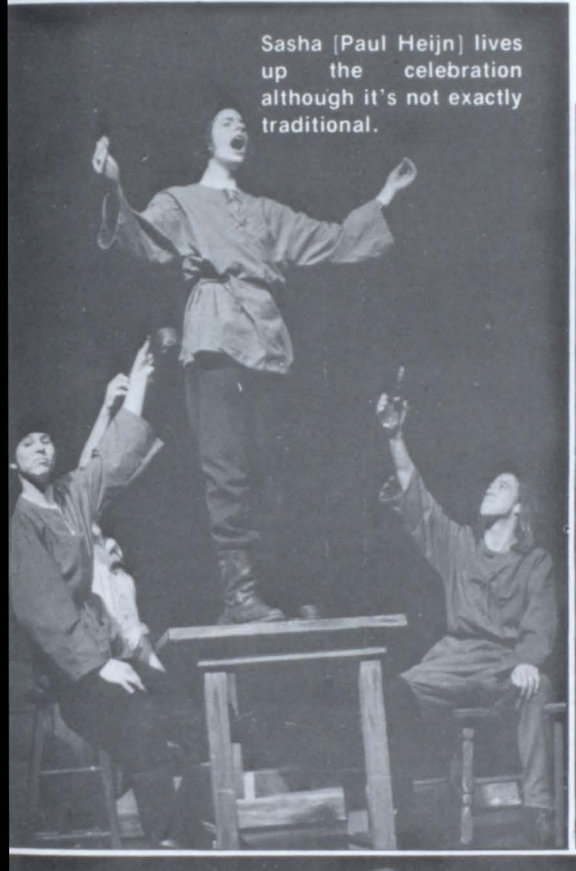
Anxious to get the terms of the marriage settled, Golde persuades Tevye to talk to Lazar.

At home, surrounded by their loved ones, Tevye and Golde lead the family circle in a "Sabbath Prayer".

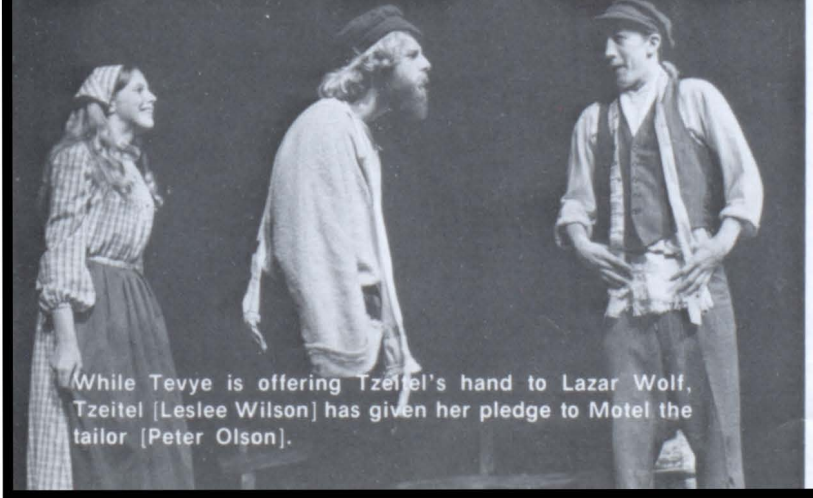
Tevye meets Lazar Wolf [Rick Aston] at the local inn and agrees to let him marry his daughter if he will keep her in comfort.

The bar room makes a toast "To Life" in celebration of the good fortune of Tevye and Lazar.

Perchick [Keith Epstien] a student from Kiev, teaches Tevye's daughters [Joanne Guidici, Kim Fletcher, Penny King] about the Bible.



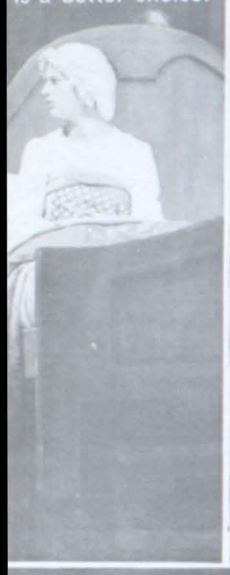
Sasha [Paul Heijn] lives up the celebration although it's not exactly traditional.



While Tevye is offering Tzeitel's hand to Lazar Wolf, Tzeitel [Leslee Wilson] has given her pledge to Motel the tailor [Peter Olson].

Realizing that their love is deep, Tevye gives his permission to Tzeitel [Michelle Baker] much to the amazement of Motel in "Miracle of Miracles".

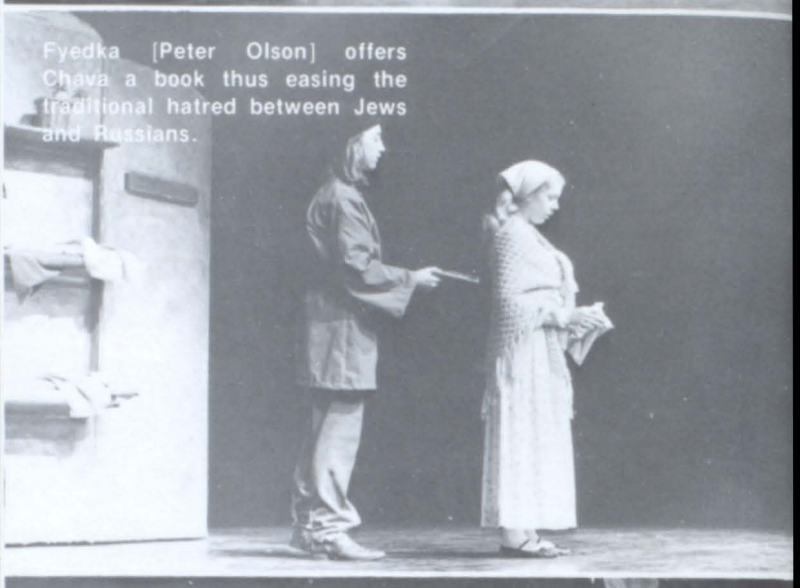
Faced with the problem of telling his wife that Tzeitel will not marry into wealth, Tevye invents a dream to convince Golde that Motel is a better choice.



Fruma Sarah [Sue Samuelson] comes from the grave to warn Tevye not to let Tzeitel marry her husband Lazar Wolf.

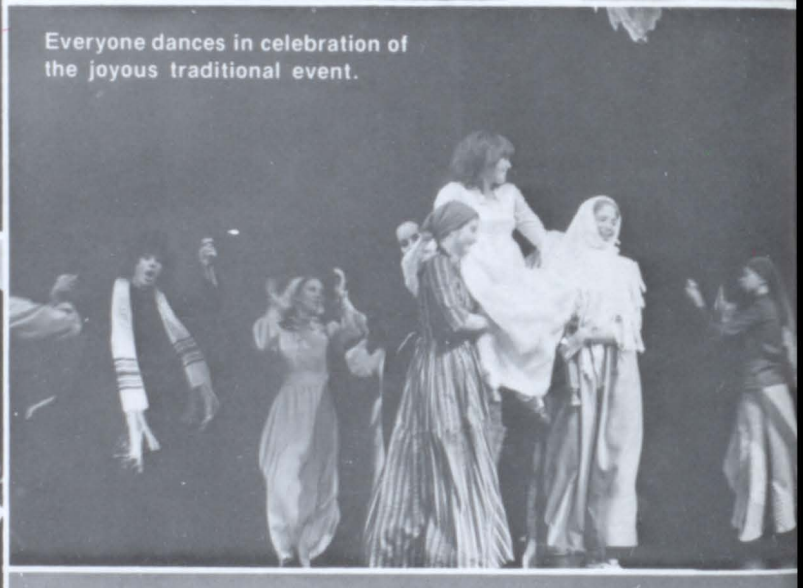
Townspeople from ages past help Fruma Sarah deliver her curse.

Fyedka [Peter Olson] offers Chava a book thus easing the traditional hatred between Jews and Russians.



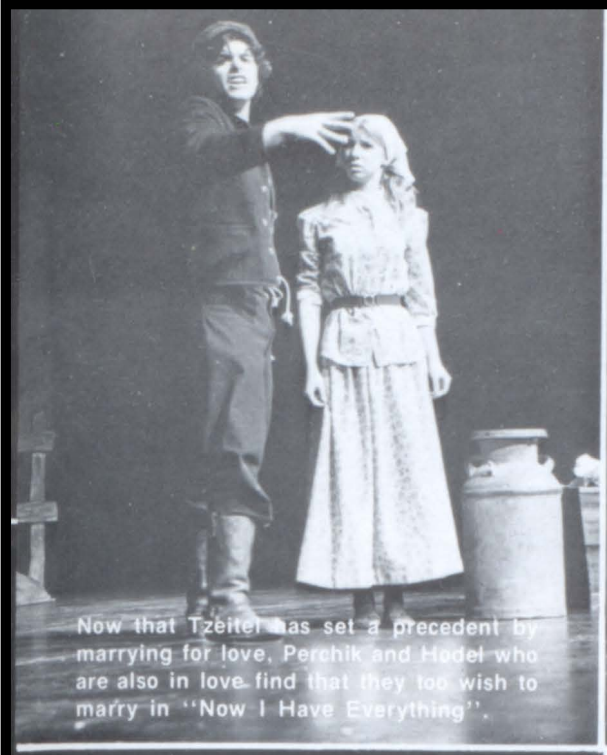
The townspeople gossip about Motel's marriage to Tzeitel.

Everyone dances in celebration of the joyous traditional event.



The whole town sings "Sunrise, Sunset" at the wedding of Motel [Steve Valdez] and Tzeitel.

Bottle Dancers are hired to perform as in all Jewish Weddings. But the dancing will soon stop with the coming of the Russians who hold an "unofficial demonstration.



Now that Tzeitel has set a precedent by marrying for love, Perchik and Hodel who are also in love find that they too wish to marry in "Now I Have Everything".

Seeing two of his [illegible] marry for love Tevye wonders if after twenty five years, Golde loves him in "Do You Love Me".

With traditions being broken right and left rumors start raging in "The Rumor".

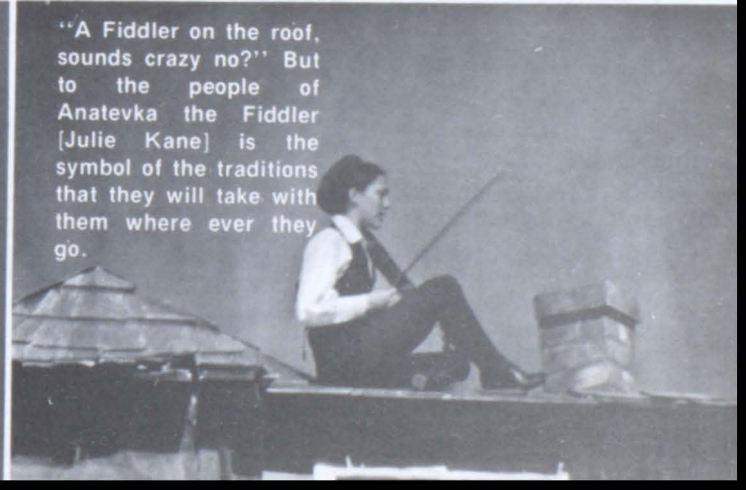
Presently news arrives that Perchik has been arrested and sent to Siberia. Hodel tries to make Tevye understand why she must go "Far from the home I Love" to be with her man.

The Rabbi [Ken Lincoln] examines the "new arrival" at Motel and Tzeitel's tailor shop.

The safe world that Tevye has built around his family has received its greatest blow. The Constable [Dirk Dusharme] informs the Jews that they must leave their homes.

In a final blow to tradition, Chava tells her father that she is going to marry Fyedka, a Russian.

"A Fiddler on the roof, sounds crazy no?" But to the people of Anatevka the Fiddler [Julie Kane] is the symbol of the traditions that they will take with them where ever they go.



FIDDLER—the talk of the town. A $10,000 budget, a battle with the Argus tapes, two great directors, Saturday rehearsals, invading McDonalds, keeping Hether and Fred quiet, cramming into buses, pep talks, 7:30 curtain. A lot of talent, a lot of work, a lot of fun, a lot of love, and a lot to remember.
